

GEN. WEYLER RETURNS.

The Boastful Spaniard Leaves His Troops in the Field.

INDIGNATION IN HAVANA.

Ex-President Harrison a Probable Candidate for the U. S. Senate.

NO EXTRA SESSION OF LEGISLATURE.

Havana, Nov. 24.—Capt. Gen. Weyler arrived last evening on board the cruiser Legazpi from Madrid. His coming created a great sensation throughout the city, as he was supposed to be out in the field after the insurgents. Whether he came back of his own volition is not known but it is believed an important announcement on the subject will be given out tomorrow.

Jacksonville, Fla., Nov. 24.—A cipher cablegram from Havana tonight to a Cuban leader here says that Gen. Weyler has been forced to return to Havana, and that the city is in great confusion.

Weyler gives no excuse, it is said, except that it is too hot and unhealthy to do any fighting.

It is openly asserted in Havana that Weyler became frightened because Maceo had set a price upon his head or his capture.

Weyler's scouts informed him that Maceo might make an attempt on Havana, and the Spanish general retreated in hot haste to the safety of his palace.

It is also stated in the cablegram that Weyler's recall is assured now, as the Spanish government is incensed against him for his dilatory tactics.

Cubans here are jubilant, for they think this will have a favorable effect upon congress.

Spanish Indignation.

Havana, Cuba, Nov. 14.—The return of Gov. General Weyler from the field without having accomplished anything of moment has raised a storm of indignation among the Spanish residents. Hot times are expected. Weyler will certainly be recalled if his countrymen in Havana can effect it.

Republican Horsewhipped.

Russellville, Ky., Nov. 24.—Tom and John Rhea, brothers, met and horsewhipped William Grider, a prominent Republican of this city, on the public square last night. The affair grew out of an alleged remark of Grider about a sister of the Rheas. Mrs. Grider is prostrated and critically ill from the shock. There is great excitement over the affair and serious trouble is anticipated.

Chief Justice Court of Claims.
Washington, Nov. 24.—The President yesterday filled the vacancy in the Chief Justiceship of the court of Claims caused by the death of Judge Richardson, by the promotion to that office of Judge Charles G. Nott, now a member of the court. The latter's place was filled by the appointment of Charles B. Hawzy, who now holds the position of Assistant District Attorney General in the Department of Justice.

Fight With Outlaws.

Lebanon, Ind., Nov. 24.—The sheriff and a posse endeavored to arrest members of a gang of desperadoes here last night, known as the Miller gang. The men opened fire on the officers, who returned the fire. Two of the posse were killed and one of the outlaws killed and another wounded. Two others were arrested.

Shot for Slander.

Pikeville, Ky., Nov. 24.—Alexander Jennings was killed yesterday evening at this place by Tom Voss, who claimed that Jennings had slandered him. Voss used a shotgun loaded with buckshot. Jennings lived but a short time after the shooting. Voss is in custody.

Silver Senators Determined.

Washington, Nov. 24.—The disposition shown by the silver senators is not propitious for the enactment of any kind of financial legislation. It is said they will put up a determined fight against the gold standard. They will favor the Dingley tariff in the hope of keeping down financial legislation.

National Bank Closed.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Nov. 24.—The Dakota National Bank, of this place, was today closed by order of the bank examiner. This bank had a paid up capital of $50,000 and reported surplus and undivided profits of $38,000, with average deposits of $800,000.

Harrison for Senator.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 24.—It is stated that ex-President Harrison will be a candidate for the United States senate.

No Extra Session.

Frankfort, Nov. 24.—It is now stated on what appears to be pretty good authority that there will be no extra session of the Kentucky legislature.

Prominent Farmer Drowns.

Harrison, Ky., Nov. 24.—A prominent farmer here was drowned yesterday.

STEAM LAUNCH BLEW UP.

One Man Fatally and One Seriously Hurt.

Cairo, Ill., Nov. 24.—The steam launch Pilot, on which C. Bryan, J. M. Mitchell, C. N. Peterson and Daniel O'Daly, all of Chicago, were preparing to take a pleasure trip to New Orleans, blew up here yesterday afternoon. J. M. Mitchell and C. Bryan were on board and the other two were on shore. Mitchell is dying and Bryan is seriously scalded. Two barrels of naphtha were on board and the explosion was terrific. The cause of the explosion is a mystery. A few minutes later Peterson and O'Daly would have been on board, and the fatalities would have been increased.

GEN. GOMEZ HEARD FROM.

Is in Good Health and Thinks He Sees Victory Ahead.

New York, Nov. 24.—The protracted silence of Commander-in-Chief Gomez, of the Cuban army, which has caused considerable anxiety among Cubans here as to his safety, has at last broken, and the Junta in this city has received a communication from him.

In this communication, which comes from Las Villas, Santa Clara province, Gen. Gomez says that he has at his command 35,000 well-equipped men, and with these he intends to proceed to Havana province. The commander-in-chief writes that on account of the bad condition of the roads it took this force of men twelve hours to pass a certain point. Gen. Gomez adds that he is in good health, as are his men and has every hope of victory.

Mark Hanna's Position.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 24.—A close friend of Chairman Hanna yesterday explained under what circumstances Mr. Hanna would accept a place in the cabinet.

"Mr. Hanna," he said, "will either go into the cabinet or he will be the next U. S. senator from Ohio. Mr. Hanna's course must be decided by Senator John Sherman. Both the chairman and Mr. McKinley understand that and they are waiting to learn what position Mr. Sherman will take. Mr. McKinley wants Mr. Hanna to accept the treasury portfolio, but Mr. Hanna has other aspirations. He believes it would be a greater honor to be senator from Ohio. But Senator Sherman stands in the way of that. Mr. McKinley will not decide on his course until he learns exactly what position Senator Sherman will take."

This same friend of Mr. Hanna said that it had practically been decided that Congressman Boutelle, of Maine, would be the secretary of the navy. Despite the fact that both Gen. Miles and Col. Fred Grant held a conference with McKinley, neither of them will get the portfolio of war.

Borcutting Goldbugs.

Richmond, Ky., Nov. 24.—Many farmers of Madison county have entered into an agreement by which they bind themselves for the next four years to employ only such men as are in favor of the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1.

Kills His Wife and Brother.

Inez, Ky., Nov. 24.—A family misunderstanding that has existed for some time resulted in a difficulty between Albert Dawson and his wife's brother, John Kasee, the latter being shot and instantly killed by the former yesterday evening.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Nothing of Importance Done Today.

On One Case all Day.—Deed and Judgment Filed.

In the circuit court today Mr. Henry Diehl, as defendant in the case of Smith Boyd against Diehl, paid over $75.30, the amount of judgment and costs.

As will be remembered, the plaintiff brought suit against the defendant for alleged ejectment from his house because a colored servant occupied one of the rooms.

A judgment of $15.47 was rendered in the case of Philip Bauer against Sam Houston, administrator, with interest from November 24, 1896.

A deed was ordered given to Jas. Lee Weston, Mrs. Minnie McKelney and Miss Emma Weston to property alleged to be owned by Mrs. Irene Cox.

THE HACK ORDINANCE.

A Case Up For Investigation This Morning.

Lawrence Glone, the hackman, was charged in the police court this morning with soliciting patronage in the Union depot for a public vehicle. Officer Sullivan charged him with soliciting patronage.

He was under the charge of strangers.

VILLAINOUS OUTRAGE.

Wife of Prof. Green Assaulted at Mayfield.

JIM STONE, COLORED, ARRESTED.

The Indications Point to His Guilt.—Great Excitement.

THERE MAY BE A NECKTIE PARTY.

One of the most atrocious outrages on record was last night committed upon the person of Mrs. J. M. R. Green, at Mayfield, by a man supposed to be colored, and two fiendish assistants. The first reports were that Mrs. Green, who is described as being a good looking woman about 35 years of age, was assaulted by one man, but later reports are that there were three men instead of one.

The victim is the highly respected wife of Prof. J. M. R. Green, teacher in the college at Water Valley, where he was at the time the crime was committed.

Particulars of the deed are hard to obtain, as relatives of the young woman are using efforts to suppress as far as possible the details of the terrible affair.

Last night, as soon as the revolting news spread, excitement ran high, and posers were at once started out in all directions.

According to reports, the first known of it was when a boy who resides near the Green residence heard screams shortly after retiring, and, jumping up, ran in the direction of the sounds and found Mrs. Green in hysterics, and frightened beyond description.

The alarm of the assault was given and soon the whole town was in arms. The young man was sent post haste to Water Valley to notify Prof. Green and to notify Mace McDade, of Fulton, to bring his bloodhounds at once.

Prof. Green, the young man who notified him and Mr. Dade with his bloodhounds reached Mayfield on the 7 o'clock train this morning. The boy stated that Mrs. Green thought her assailant was colored and that he was in his shirt sleeves.

Prof. Green said to the man that some negroes in Mayfield had an old grudge against him, and that he thought probably one of these was guilty. It seems that some time ago he had several arrests for stealing some of his shirts, and one of them is now in the penitentiary. Several of the gang, according to his story, had threatened to get even with him.

The bloodhounds were started out but it is likely that the trail was cold and had been destroyed by the crowd. A colored man was arrested and jailed, but is not believed to be the right one.

A fuller account was this afternoon received from Myfield, and is as follows:

Last night about 11 o'clock Mrs. Green, who is a delicate little woman about 35, and who has just recovered from a siege of typhoid fever, was awakened by a hand clutching her throat. She looked up and perceived a negro, who threatened to kill her if she made any outcry. She attempted to leave the bed, but he forced her back and by sheer force accomplished his purpose and she sank back exhausted. He then, without releasing his grasp, informed her that he would be back in fifteen minutes, and that if she made the least outcry he would kill her. He thus hoped, no doubt, to be given ample time to escape.

As soon as she thought he had gotten far away she ran to the residence of Mr. T. A. Slaughter, near Eighth and College street, a neighbor, and awakened them by her screams.

When the door was opened she fell swooning in the hall, and being carried into the family room, revived sufficiently to relate her horrible experience at the hands of her brutish assailant.

The town was soon aroused, and the population turned out en masse to hunt down the fiend.

This afternoon Lane Robertson, colored, was arrested on suspicion, but encountered no difficulty in proving an alibi. Later Jim Stone, colored, who was employed on the farm of Mr. Jeff Wyatt, was arrested, and from indications is the right man.

Stone is an ex-convict, having served a term at Edinville for forgery, and in addition has been two or three times accused of criminal assault in Graves county.

This morning before Mr. Wyatt was aware of the outrage he traced his horse's foot prints from his house to the Green residence.

An effort was made to get the size of the foot prints around the house, but the scoundrel had guarded against detection by this means and walked on his heels.

The people are wild with excitement, and if Stone does not prove an alibi pretty quick, the general opinion is that he will be lynched. He is a bad reputation and every one is for his guilt.

He is critically ill, and a fruit of all

NEW TRIAL.

Granted This Morning to Attorney Jesse Moss.

Attorney Jesse Moss was fined $5 and costs in Justice Winchester's court Saturday for refusing to work the Blandville road, in pursuance of orders from the overseer.

Yesterday he filed motion and affidavit for a new trial, claiming that he was not present when judgment was rendered, and thus had no opportunity to establish his innocence. Justice Winchester today granted a new trial, but has not yet set the date.

CONFLICTING TESTIMONY.

In the Police Court.—Henry Futrell On Trial.

Ike Cohen the Plaintiff.—Both Swear to Different Stories.

Henry Futrell, colored, and Ike Cohen, the second street merchant, did not swear alike in the police court this morning.

Cohen swore that Futrell came along past his store last Saturday night and saw three of his colored friends inside. He told them to "come out of that store" and when Cohen remonstrated called the latter a son of a bitch. Two witnesses named Houser, who were in the store at the time, swore to the above also.

Futrell denied making such remarks, and the three colored men he called out corroborated him. The case was left open to secure the testimony of Mrs. Cohen, whom the defendant and witnesses swore went to the store with a pistol and threatened to blow Futrell's brains out.

NOT TRIED.

The Case Against George Jones Continued.

Witnesses Unable to Appear Today.—Jones Sticks to His First Story.

The case against George Jones, colored, charged with committing rape upon his 12-year-old sister-in-law, Alice Mitchell, was continued in Judge Sanders' court this morning until Friday.

Jones is a section hand on the N. C. & St. L., and resides at 12th and Jones. His wife is down with consumption and the statements of witnesses are to the effect that he has repeatedly debauched the girl, although he denies it.

A great many believe the charges are not sustained by the facts in the case. Jones denies his guilt and says he can easily establish his innocence.

His bond is $500 and in default of it he was remanded to jail. The girl and other witnesses were unable to appear against him this morning.

Testimonial No. 5.

What Mr. G. W. Slaughter, of 222 1/2 Broadway, Paducah, says for Roncodo Tonic:

"For years I have been a great sufferer of stomach troubles and constipation, so bad that I thought there was no relief for me, and had given up all hope of ever getting well again. I had tried almost every kind of patent medicine and no relief, and when the Roncodo medicine came here I bought a bottle of their Roncodo Tonic, thinking it like the rest, but I soon changed my mind. It seems to go right to the spot. Now I feel life is worth living, for I do not have that distress in my stomach, that sick feeling is all gone. I can eat my victuals with a relish, my bowels move regularly, in fact feel like a new man, and I feel glad to add my name to that all suffering like me here in Paducah will call at once and try at least one bottle. I feel sure it will help you."

BAD BOYS.

One White and One Colored, Both Thieves.

JUDGE SANDERS HOLDS THEM.

George Miller and Gabe Fletcher Charged with a Felony.

ETH WILL LIKELY GO OVER.

George Miller, a young man who might have learned by past experience that the way of the transgressor is hard, was in the prisoner's dock at Judge Sanders' court this morning charged with stealing a large monkey wrench, valued at $2.50, from the Paducah Furniture Company, and selling it under pretense of owning it. He asked Major Harris to defend him and the latter stated to the court that he guessed Miller was guilty of petty larceny, and would waive examination on the charge, but did not believe that the evidence would sustain the charge of obtaining money by false pretenses.

Judge Sanders said that he had already given his construction of the law relative to such cases, and that a decision of the court of appeals which he deemed a good one, was in substantiation of his opinion.

The reason there was so much crime, he said, was because courts were too lenient with criminals. In some states petty larceny was a penitentiary offense, but in Kentucky a person can steal under $20 and escape the penitentiary unless he sells the stolen property.

Some, he said, even went so far as to boast that they stole in order to get in jail and obtain a gratuitous support at the expense of the taxpayers. He gave it as his opinion that where a culprit steals and sells the goods he has stolen, he is liable to prosecution for obtaining money by false pretenses whether he claims in so many words or not that the property is his own. The pretense is tacit, if not expressed.

He then gave a brief review of young Miller's career of theft and of the times he had previously been before him, and remarked that there were there waiting other gentlemen who wanted warrants against him for selling stolen goods.

"If all you've said is true," laughingly remarked Major Harris, "I'll put in a plea of kleptomania."

"I believe," replied Mr. Reeves, "that this disease is something like the gout, and is peculiar to rich people only."

"Yes, I think that way myself," observed Judge Sanders.

The evidence in the case was heard and developed the fact that Miller represented to Frank Lawrence, the second hand dealer, that the monkey wrench was his own. Miller was held him to answer at the next term of circuit court, fixing his bond at $100, in default of which he went to jail.

Gabe Fletcher, colored, was presented on a charge of selling a pistol stolen from Austin Travis, colored, to George Overstreet. Fletcher said he wanted to plead guilty to the charge of obtaining money by false pretenses, but Judge Sanders informed him that the court had no desire to take advantage of his ignorance, and would allow him to retract his plea and waive examination. This he did, and in default of bond went to jail. Fletcher, while he has been fined for misdemeanors but numerous occasions, has always been regarded as honest, but now can hardly escape the penitentiary. These cases, it is thought, will have a salutary effect on those culprits addicted to petty larceny.
